

SYDNEY FLYING SQUADRON

A LITTLE ABOUT US...

BE PART OF HISTORY AND SUPPORT THE OLDEST OPEN BOAT SAILING CLUB IN AUSTRALIA.

Sydney Flying Squadron, founded in 1891, is Australia's oldest open boat sailing club and the birthplace of the famous Sydney Harbour sailing skiff classes.

The home of the Historical 18-foot skiffs, it was founded by Mark Foy to allow people to enjoy skiff sailing regardless of financial background and remains today first and foremost a club for its members.

During the summer months, the Squaddy hosts racing of skiff sailing classes on Saturdays.

A Spectator Ferry runs on Saturdays during the sailing season providing a magnificent harbour cruise whilst following the racing.

Membership is open to both social & sailing members and offers the best value of all amongst Sydney sailing clubs.

Foy's Kirribilli Restaurant presents for you a menu range of new dishes to explore and savour, as well as some traditional Squaddy favourites.

Enjoy a meal in the stylish Clubhouse or a refreshing drink on the terrace of Flying Bear Café with harbour views that cannot be bettered.

We welcome all new members, their friends and family!
