HISTORIC 18's RACE RESULTS

Race 9 of the 2020-21 Season, Heat 2 of the Club Championship and Heat One of the Summer Point Score saw warm and humid conditions with seven skiffs on hand for the day's racing.

Early predictions in the lead-up were for a moderate to fresh nor'easter, but on the day it was anything but, with an overcast sky and not much wind. Rig choices were mostly for full-size no.2 rig while Yendys and The Mistake opted for no.1 rig.

Yendys won by 59 secs from The Mistake, then Australia IV, Top Weight, Britannia, Scot and Tangalooma.

The handicap result was a win for Top Weight by 8 secs from Britannia, then Yendys, The Mistake, Australia IV, Scot and Tangalooma.

THE 12 FOOT SKIFFS

In addition to the Historic 18s, the 12 foot skiffs were in force at the club to compete in the NSW State Championship hosted by the SFS over the weekend. Sydney Harbour was at its best presenting 2 completely different days for racing. Race 1 was held in mild conditions on Saturday, with blustery conditions on Sunday for Races 2 and 3.
