

Only 2 races left of the 2021-22 sailing season

Hurry in to the Sydney Flying Squadron and Foys Kirribilli and be a part of the history and nostalgia of Australia's oldest open boat sailing club.

Watch on, enjoying your morning coffee, while witnessing our fleet of historic 18-footers as they are rigged in Milson Park. Or stay a while longer and lunch on the balcony as the fleet launches from the boatramp below. It really is quite a sight!

Last races of the 2021-22 sailing season are Saturday 2nd April and Saturday 9th April.

Don't miss out. Book your table today!

Book now!

Sydney Flying Squadron wharf area update

Works are well underway with the wharf area and we are expecting to start the café fit out for the new Flying Bear Café in the coming weeks.

Meanwhile, the café continues to operate from the boatshed and the Club bar and Foys Kirribilli restaurant remain open for members and guests.

We regret any inconvenience caused whilst the works are being carried out and look forward to your company on the new wharf.

Sailing Update

SFS Race Reports are available via the SFS website after each week's race. Simply click through for the latest news. Last race report can be viewed for Saturday, 26 March 2022.

Become a sailing member now!

